LENTEN PRAYERS Devotees recite prayers at a statue of Jesus Christ at Kawa-kawa Natural Park in Ligao City in Albay in what has become a traditional religious practice during the Lenten season in the province.

Dogs also rise after rescue

By Alya B. Honasan

FOR ANIMAL welfare advocate Maria Honasan, driving her SUV on Good Friday and seeing streets filled with praying Catholics, the passion of a dying savior translates more appropriately into her own crusade to save the most innocent of victims—223 pit bulls rescued from dogfighting rings in San Pablo City and Calauan, Laguna, in a police raid on March 30.

It's a passion Honasan shares with other people who spent Good Friday in San Pablo with the dogs—a passion that borders on rage on learning that the same Koreans who were arrested in December last year in Indang, Cavite, for running an online dogfighting operation were out on bail and simply relocated their activity.

Persevere in crisis, Pope tells faithful

ROME—Pope Benedict XVI encouraged those threatened by unemployment and other economic woes to draw courage and strength from the suffering of the crucified Jesus Christ as the German Pontiff presided over Good Friday's Way of the Cross procession at the ancient Colosseum.

Benedict, who turns 85 on April 16, didn't carry the cross during the hourlong procession itself. Instead, he listened intently to meditations on suffering that he asked an elderly Italian couple to compose for the traditional ceremony.

Then, as the final reflection was read aloud, the Pontiff was handed the slender, lightweight wooden cross, which he held steadily for a few minutes.

Thousands of pilgrims clutching candles and prayer books jammed the boulevard outside the Colosseum and the ancient Roman Forum to pray with the Pope on a mild, cloudy night at the traditional Via Crucis procession.

A few held palms or olive branches they had saved from Palm Sunday, which opened the Holy Week ceremonies of the Roman Catholic Church.

Families from Italy, Ireland, Burkina Faso and Peru took

Devotees flock to Lucban

By Delfin T. Mallari Jr.
Inquirer Southern Luzon

LUCBAN, Quezon—"Grabe (Awesome)! Beyond description."

This was how Fr. Joey Faller, the priest who built the Kamay ni Hesus (Hand of Jesus) shrine here, described the throngs of devotees who had been flocking to the religious site to mark the Holy Week.

"Such tremendous expression of faith is really heartwarming. It is a manifestation of the strengthening spirituality of our people," Faller, a renowned healer, said in an interview on Good Friday.

He said this year's visitors—devotees, picnickers, curiosity seekers, hikers and balikbayans—had been arriving in droves since Palm Sunday.

With more people expected to come until Monday, a holiday, Faller predicted the multitude of visitors would surpass his estimate of one million for the entire Holy Week observance.

"The shrine will surely reach an estimated 1.5 million visitors," he said.

"They came from different parts of the country. Most visitors were newcomers, as reported to me by the shrine staff," said Faller, a native of this quiet town at the foot of Mt. Banahaw.

Shrine staff gave no specific figures on how many devotees have actually come as of yesterday.

Since just midnight on Friday, hikers and bikers from Lucena City (24 kilometers away) and Tayabas City (12 km away) had started their trek to Lucban.

Residents along the route offered free hot coffee and cold water to the walking pilgrims.

As clergy ages, many called but few chosen

By Jocelyn R. Uy

EVERY DAY, Fr. Jason Laguerta makes sure that he delivers a wonderful church service—his sermon appealing and relevant, the choir belting out soulful songs and the church clean and adorned with nice decorations.

When not saying Mass at Holy Cross Parish Church in Barangay Tejeros, Makati City, he mingles with the small communities he has established in his parish or holds Mass in the streets to make people feel they belong.

Tending to the spiritual needs of 30,000 parishioners is no easy feat.

But Laguerta always aspires to be an inspiring shepherd to his flock because this is where the country can draw young men to priesthood to fill an aging clergy.

Go meatless, help save planet, says scientist

By Tessa R. Salazar

SOME 15 million Filipinos made a difference in making this planet a little bit more liveable when they switched off their lights and other electrical appliances for just one hour during the 2009 Earth Hour.

That singular act was equivalent to 7,491 trees planted and grown for 10 years, prevented carbon dioxide emissions from 123,984 liters of gasoline or 8,862 LPG (liquefied petroleum gas) tanks, kept 57 passenger vehicles from being driven for one year, produced 1.18 carbon emission reduction credits in a day in the Ambuklao dam.

Overall, the carbon dioxide reduction at that moment was calculated to have amounted to 292,155.45 kilograms.

VIGAN CITY—It is a Holy Week contest where the winner is the guy who cracks the most or the biggest number of eggs.

On Maundy Thursday, as in previous years, groups of boys and a few men gathered at Plaza Salcedo here and played a game called "Itlogan."

Simply, it meant an egg-cracking contest and anyone could participate as long as he brought fresh eggs with him.

Played on a winner-take-all basis, all a competitor had to do was crack

DYNAMIC INFRASTRUCTURE SERVICES

OWN YOUR CLOUD

FINALLY, A COST-EFFECTIVE PLUG-AND-PLAY PRIVATE CLOUD SOLUTION

Globe Telecom delivers another innovative ICT solution with Dynamic Infrastructure Services (DIS), the company's latest addition to its portfolio of cloud computing services. A first in the Philippines, DIS reduces the complexity of cloud computing by leveraging pre-configured and fully-tested components so enterprises can build private clouds at a lower cost. Customers who avail of DIS can easily scale their capacity depending on their business needs, without requiring any additional CAPEX.

DEVELOPMENT TOOLS

DIS is optimized for delivering web-based applications. It prioritizes traffic, offloads network processing and increases reliability. Further, DIS has development tools, which subscribers can avail of as part of the Platform-as-a-Service offering. Hence, companies now have the capability to develop their own applications for their specific requirements. Access to these tools also provides users another layer of flexibility given that they can create, debug and maintain their own sets of applications in their network.

COMPUTE AND STORAGE SOLUTIONS

When enterprises implement DIS, they get more than IT resources. This means that development teams can rapidly provision fault tolerant and scalable compute and storage resources and a company's IT staff can maintain control and foster consistency and compliance within their network.

A magic carpet ride of a wedding anniversary

By Louie Cruz
Contributor

LOVED ONES, family, and friends old and new stepped into a magic carpet ride at the 30th pearl wedding anniversary of Jimmy and Jenny Napoles.

The garden was transformed into an Indian summer oasis decorated with painted silk, authentic hookah pipes purchased abroad, splashes of jewel tones of turquoise, magenta and topaz. Some guests came in saris or Indian-inspired attires adorned with bindhis.

It was the couple's children—Christine, James, Christian and Jean (currently based in LA studying fashion design)—who finished on a grand celebration for their parents' wedding anniversary.

"Thirty years is a long time," said eldest child Christine, addressing Jimmy and Jenny. "It sets an inspiration for us to find people for ourselves who love each other like you both do."

The party was catered by no less than Kashmir Restaurant, Manila's go-to place for the most exquisite Indian cuisine. The extensive buffet excited our palates with Lamb Chops, Beef Vindaloo, Paneer, chicken, beef and vegetarian biryanis, and ice cream bar to cap off the gastronomic fare.

Guests were entertained with belly dancing and Bollywood dancing numbers by the Snake Charmers, who interacted with members of the crowd for impromptu dance lessons.

Braving the cold to give their heartfelt wishes to the couple were nine young friends of the Napoles children: Bongy Mamolos, Bryan Revilla, Joey Marquez, Mark Revilla and the youngest guest of them all, baby Ann Elizabeth Lim at 4 months old.

I got to steal a few minutes with Jimmy, who shared his tips for a long-lasting marriage.

"Although we are different in some ways, as you see in the party I like to dance more than she does. Jenny and I are very hardworking; we have the same goals in life, but above all we are very much with God.

"What's more, we very much respect each other. We love our children as much as we love each other. We prioritize and respect each other's feelings when one of us is not having a good day because when you don't, you end up saying things that are hurtful, and most couples don't realize this. That's all there is to it."

for a Sunday brunch, chef Cyrille whipped up for fashion designer Rajo Laurel a special. It designed foie pancake with special caviar and sour cream, all topped with a [illegible].

The Dessert Bar is supervised by pastry chef Mike Angbino, who has garnered many awards from international competitions along with the likes of chef J Ramilon. The spread included fresh gelato, white chocolate fondue, Madeleines with truffle honey, cheesecake, truffle grown [illegible] and strawberry shortcake. And that's just the first row!

While we enjoyed some Moet & Chandon Rosé Imperial, we played some games and gave away prizes, courtesy of pressman Swatch lady Virgie Ramos and SM Accessories.

(Call Impressions Restaurant at [illegible], ask [illegible].)

After the brunch, we caught the afternoon screening of the hit movie, "The Hunger Games." Thanks to Resorts World Mall's Melvin Pineda, my older daughter Amelia Valdes was among the lucky few who got to watch the premiere.

Everyone says the characters in the movie all dress like me, but I beg to differ. My false eyelashes are wilder than theirs!

No trip to Japan is complete without some sushi, and we had plenty, thanks to Tzabi and Marisa Aboitiz, who brought us to Sukiyabashi Jiro, an intimate sushi bar in Ginza where the chefs prepare the most delectable pieces for a maximum 12 guests. We also had a few orders of the ramen at the [illegible] Restaurant right in Tsukiji Market.

It was all such a foodie trip that we finally just had simple ramen noodles with Roberto and Mandy Takeuchi at Ippudo in Marunouchi, which was a great way to relax and have a simple meal.

The highlight of the entire trip for me was that it coincided with the opening of the newest and largest Uniqlo in the world, with 12 floors, 12-floor store in the heart of the Ginza district. It was fun to line up just to get in, and then to get caught up in the retail frenzy inside the store. Uniqlo will be opening at the SM Mall of Asia soon, so we too will soon experience the thrill of fast shopping.

Tokyo food trip

All the food made me think about a recent food trip to Tokyo along with my hubby Dennis and his friends. Among the exciting restaurants we tried was Robataya, a traditional Japanese grill in the Roppongi District, with two chefs grilling various seafood and vegetables for the guests, all seated around them as if in a Japanese home.

Among the friends with us were tradition Fernando Zobel and his wife, Kit. Fernando recently made headlines due to a nasty fall at the Paso de Los Caballos, so I hope he is all recovered already.

Also with us were Mieko and [illegible] of [illegible], who took us to a teppanyaki

LA BREZA TOWER

MOTHER IGNACIA · QUEZON CITY

CONDOTEL & CONDOMINIUM

THERE'S NO BETTER PLACE THAN LA BREZA TOWER for those moving towards new beginnings and greater achievements; as you experience luxury living within your reach at your new home in idyllic Quezon City. The 22-storey mix-use condotel and condominium property is located in Mother Ignacia Street near EDSA, the main artery of Metro Manila — offering easy access to any point in the metropolis.

Lobby

Elevator

Swimming Pool

La Breza's luxurious amenities offer the peak of exclusive, comfortable and secure living for today's successful professionals. La Breza Tower is ideal for professionals who wish to enjoy the best of both worlds: a comfortable, relaxing and private hideaway that takes them away from the stresses of workaday life, while offering them the convenience and excitement of an urban, cosmopolitan existence. As a condotel, La Breza provides a living experience that is superior to that of a condominium; residents and guests enjoy 24/7 personalized service from the friendly and well-trained staff. La Breza combines the privacy and privilege of being a homeowner with the comfort and convenience of being serviced by the staff of a five-star hotel.

Its strategic location in Quezon City gives residents and guests access to Metro Manila's centers of business, leisure, entertainment, sports, shopping and healthcare in Quezon City, Ortigas, Makati and Fort Bonifacio. Transportation is very convenient as the EDSA thoroughfare has abundant taxicabs, buses and the Metro Railway Transit (MRT). La Breza is in close proximity to two of the country's largest media networks, ABS-CBN and GMA-7. Best of all, La Breza is located in the Mother Ignacia, Diliman area that still retains the relaxing, quiet and spacious features of suburbia. There is still ample greenery in the area and there is no crowding, in contrast to places like Makati and Ortigas. It is the perfect place to rest, recharge and make plans for future projects and conquests.

Residents and guests are met by friendly and well-trained La Breza staff who are ready to cater to their needs. The spacious and opulent Grand Lobby welcomes hotel guests while the Residential Lobby offers elegant, exclusive entry for residents. The luxurious five-star quality marble-and-carpeted interiors and soft lighting evoke feelings of serenity and relaxation, while large glass panels allow natural light to enter these areas. The Lift Lobby and the hallways on each floor are spacious enough to give maximum comfort to passing residents and guests.

Gym

Amenities include Cafe La Breza, serving Filipino and world cuisine; the gym that offers a complete fitness experience with cardio machines and weight machines, along with free weights. The gym is adjacent to the open air pool area with a beautiful infinity pool for adults, a kiddie pool and a jacuzzi, surrounded by refreshing greenery. There's also a commercial area with restaurants and boutiques, banquet and function rooms. The condotel and residential areas have studio, one-bedroom and two-bedroom units. Residents and guests enjoy ample parking spaces and 24-hour security. Studio, one-bedroom and two-bedroom units are available to prospective residents and investors. They have a choice of receiving a bare unit (already with finishing) or a fully furnished one (available at some additional cost).

The Ballroom

Studio units may be converted to a one-bedroom unit, while a one-bedroom unit may be expanded to a two-bedroom one. Studio units include bedroom, closet and living areas, kitchen and dining, and bathroom. They also have a balcony. Studio deluxe units on the third floor have a garden and a roofed balcony, offering a wider view of the city. One-bedroom units on the third floor have a garden. As true with the expanded studio units, the third-floor one-bedroom units' garden and balcony areas would expand considerably when these are converted into two bedroom units. Penthouse units are also available for a magnificent view of the city.

The One-Bedroom Unit

The Penthouse units are comprised of the foyer, living room and dining room, kitchen, utility/maid's room, toilet and bath, and den/guest room. The garden, balcony, and ledge are also at the lower level. The following areas are at the upper level: the master bedroom with a walk-in closet, toilet and bath, and the balcony; another bedroom with closet, and toilet and bath. The master bedroom opens out to a balcony. Residential units at La Breza are available for purchase by residents and investors, while its hotel is a favorite of foreign guests, celebrities and professionals who wish to enjoy the excellent service, luxury amenities and convenient location. Would-be residents and investors are encouraged to take advantage of the ongoing promo that offers 15% discount on the total contract price, with down payment payable in 24 months. The balance may be paid through bank financing.

Studio Unit

The La Breza Tower Hotel, which includes units on the third to eleventh floors, is now fully operational and accepts bookings for weddings, birthday celebrations and corporate functions. La Breza Tower hotel and condominium is owned and developed by Sta. Lucia Realty and Development, Inc., one of the pioneering and most trusted developers in the Philippines. Architectural design is by W.V. Coscolluela and Associates while interior design is by Gonzalez & Pasquan.
